

AGENDA

2017 ANNUAL MEETING of The Madawaska Club of Go Home Bay

Tuesday, May 2, 2017
7pm

Fairlawn Avenue United Church, 28 Fairlawn Avenue, Toronto

Please join us beginning at 6:30 for conversation and light refreshments

Guest Presentation: Dr. Karl Schiefer*
Georgian Bay- A Unique North American Ecosystem
What Makes Georgian Bay So Special?

The Madawaska Club of Go Home Bay

1. Official Declaration of Meeting – Andrea Proctor
2. President's Remarks – Kelly Killoran
3. Treasurer's Report – Mike Stephens
4. Consideration of Appointment of Auditors – Mike Stephens
5. Environment Report - Adam
6. Activities Report – Amy Satterthwaite
7. Property Report – David Cape
8. Planning Report – Patsy Cross
9. Election of Board of Directors – Kelly Killoran
10. GBA report – Bob Duncanson
11. Other business

There will be some items with the Go Home Bay logo on sale at the meeting.

* Karl is an Aquatic Ecologist with 35 years' experience in consulting and management, holding many research positions as a specialist in freshwater ecosystems and aquatic resources across Canada. As a fourth-generation Georgian Bay resident he brings to the screen his passion and love of this unique ecosystem. His slides are magnificent and his message profound.